

If this child is / or you are taking medication for ADHD, please answer the questions based on how they behave when they are OFF those medications. Think about the last time they did not take their ADHD medication (e.g., when they forgot to take their pills, were on a "drug holiday", or when the medication wore off in the evening)